OUR MISSION

Academia María Reina, a Catholic secondary school of academic excellence for young women, aims to develop leaders who will serve as agents of change in our society, firm in their faith and convictions, and steeped in the charism of the Sisters of St. Joseph of Brentwood, New York.

OUR VISION

Academia María Reina is the premier Catholic all-girls academic center in Puerto Rico, anchored in the mission of the Sisters of St. Joseph of Brentwood, NY. Through a holistic approach to education, the school empowers young women in the pursuit of excellence to become ethical, courageous, and compassionate leaders, agents of local and global transformation, and advocates for justice through service.
